MAY MONTHLY PROGRAM

Hazrat Maulana Hafiz Ijaz Ahmad visited the ICH for the May monthly program. Hazrat gave a bayan on the reforms of society and provided the following advices to the community:

He mentioned that during our entire life we make plans ranging from next minute plans to long term plans for future. We can plan all we want but Allah (SWT) has his own plans for us which have already been decided. Therefore, we should submit ourselves to the ultimate plans of Allah (SWT) since we are helpless in front Allah (SWT) plans. Instead of complaining and criticizing the calamities or situations which didn't go as planned, we should be content with the outcome of our plans, be hopeful for Allah's mercy and blessings in the outcome we are faced with. Hazrat further continued and advised to spend more time in Masjid and less time in Market or unmeaningful gatherings. According to the meaning of one of the hadith, the worst place on this earth is the bazaar or shopping areas and the best places are the Masajids. Hazrat further explained the reason that the shopping places are the worst places because all the ills of the society live there such as fraud, deceit, lust, bad mouthing, back biting etc. In despite of being the worst place on the earth, reciting the 4th kalima while in the shopping area brings million more hasanats to the recite and protection by Allah (S.W.T). This is the great blessing of Allah (SWT). Hazrat also mentioned that all the Masajids in the world constantly get the residual blessings from the Masjid Al Haram, which are always ascending on the Kabah of Allah (SWT). As such, Masajids are the best places to be in general and also to seek refuge from natural disasters such as earth quakes, storms, tsunamis which are sent as a lesson for us from Allah (SWT). When one gets busy in preparing sincerely and according to the Quran and Sunnah, for his/her Akhirah in this world, he/she doesn't only get the best in the hereafter but Allah (SWT) will make his/her life better and easy in this world as well. May Allah protect us from the un-permissible things in this worldly life and give us all the Correct understanding and wisdom to follow his deen, Aameen
